“Ten lessons from ten years: What the United States can learn about democracy and populism from a decade of right-wing party dominance in Macedonia, and how it ended”

* RSVP to: melikian@asu.edu melikian.asu.edu|480-965-4188

Dr. Rumena Bužarovska received her doctoral degree in Literature at the University of Ss. Cyril and Methodius (UKIM - Универзитет „Св. Кирил и Методиј”) in Skopje, Macedonia. She is currently serving as an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Philology at UKIM. Dr. Bužarovska has also taught Macedonian in the Critical Languages Institute (CLI) of the ASU Melikian Center.

November 29, 2017 - 6:30 PM - Rm 195, Coor Hall, 975 S Myrtle Ave, Tempe, AZ