About the course:

The intermediate course in Armenian is a continuation of the elementary course and is intended to enhance overall communicative competence in Armenian.

The main goal of the course is to build on the student's Armenian vocabulary, grammar and orthography and to further develop listening, reading, conversational, and compositional skills. In particular, students will improve their ability to comprehend and exchange ideas with native speakers. Students will also express original ideas, report on various types of events, and conduct interviews in the language. The course incorporates a variety of activities and drills including dialogues, reading texts, role plays, language games, grammar and phonetic exercises, dictations, translations, interviews and discussion of topics.

By the completion of this course, students are expected to acquire a proficiency level of ILR 1+ or 2 in listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

They should be able to:

• Initiate and maintain predictable face-to-face conversations and satisfy limited social demands.

- Create sentences and short paragraphs detailing survival needs, personal history, daily life, etc.
- Understand most conversations spoken at a normal pace relating to occupational and social topics.
- Read material such as announcements of public events, simple prose containing biographical information or narration of events, and straightforward newspaper headlines.

In addition, the course will help students recognize common knowledge, beliefs, attitudes, and behavioral patterns of the Armenian people, and to detect and conform to fundamental verbal and nonverbal cultural norms.

Program Structure:

This class is divided into two sessions. The first session covers the material normally included in the fall semester. The second covers the material normally included in the spring semester.

You will receive two grades; one for each session.

| Session I: | June 1—June 23 | (final exams on June 23) |
|-------------|--------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Session II: | June 24—July 16 | (final exams on July 16) |

Grading system per session:

| Homework | 15% |
| Weekly tests, quizzes, presentations | 50% |
| Final examination | 20% |

| Grade | Percent |

Auditing and Incompletes:

Since CLI courses are tuition free, they cannot be taken for audit. There is no not-for-credit option. All students will receive a grade for their class. CLI does not issue grades of Incomplete. Students who do not complete coursework by the end of CLI will be graded normally, with a grade of zero for any assignment not completed.

Class Time versus Homework:

This intensive course relies heavily on work performed outside the class.

Class time concentrates on activities that you cannot perform effectively without the immediate feedback of an instructor, for example: conversation, structured oral drills, active listening comprehension, etc.

Activities for which no instructor is necessary will typically be performed as homework, for example: reading, writing, and composition; grammar, etc.

In particular, you will be expected to read ahead and to work with material that has not yet been covered in class. It is your responsibility to learn assigned material before class, then come to class prepared to apply what they have learned. Instructors will not necessary go over every homework topic in class. Instead, they will concentrate are topics that are particularly difficult or particularly important. Nonetheless, you are responsible for mastering every topic assigned, including topics not emphasized in class.

With a course moving at 5 times the usual speed, preparation is critical. Students who come to class unprepared will find it difficult to succeed.

Attendance and Class Participation:

Since the course relies so heavily on listening and speaking practice, attendance and participation are mandatory and count toward your final grade.

Class participation will reflect your daily preparation and active participation in class discussions. A student who is chronically late to class, leaves early, or is not prepared to participate will not receive full attendance and participation credit.

Students who miss more than two classes over the course of the 7-week session without prior consent of the instructor or CLI administration will receive a zero for class participation and will be asked to withdraw from the course. Absences may be excused on a case-by-case basis. Extenuating circumstances should be discussed with the instructor. However, that does not guarantee that an exception will be made.

Students who need to be absent from class due to religious observances (ACD 304–04: Accommodations for Religious Practices) or due to participation in university-sanctioned activities (ACD 304–02: Missed Classes Due to University-Sanctioned Activities) should notify the instructor at the beginning of the semester about the need to be absent from class and make arrangements to make up missed assignments and in-class work.

Homework Grading:

Homework is your opportunity to practice new structures. It is expected that you will make mistakes; you will not be marked down for doing so. As long as you complete your homework and turn it in on time, you will receive full credit.

Grade Appeals

Grade disputes must first be addressed by discussing the situation with the instructor. If the dispute is not resolved with the instructor, the student may appeal to the department chair per the University Policy for Student Appeal Procedures on Grades.
