Treat «Между нами» like you would a regular textbook—read all the dialogs and explanations, take notes, and make use of the dictionary and appendices—the more comfortable you are with the textbook website, the better your experience of using it will be. This online textbook comes with homework and classroom workbooks for Units 1-5 and 6-9 (2019 Edition) https://mezhdunami.org/instructors/workbooks.shtml

Recommended Materials:
Some online dictionaries for you to explore before the start of the program include:

About the course:
This intensive course provides a comprehensive introduction to Russian language and culture, while ensuring a solid command of fundamental grammatical structures.

By the completion of this course, all students are expected to acquire a proficiency level of “Novice High” or better in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The appendix of this syllabus contains a partial list of skills that a speaker at this level will possess.

In addition, the course will help students recognize common beliefs, attitudes, and behavioral patterns of Russian speaking people, and to detect and conform to fundamental verbal and nonverbal cultural norms.

Program Structure:
This class is divided into two sessions. The first session covers the material normally included in the fall semester of first-year Russian course and the second covers the material normally included in the spring semester of a first-year Russian course.

You will receive two grades; one for each session.

Session I: May 18—June 12 (final exams on June 12)
Session II: June 15—July 10 (final exams on July 9)
*July 10th will be a half-day.

Grading system per session:

Extra-credit:
You can get up to 5% of extra-credit if you attend extra-curricular activities (Russian club and film screenings) and complete post-activity assignments.

Auditing and Incompletes:
Since CLI courses are tuition free, they cannot be taken audited. There is no not-for-credit option. All students will receive a grade for this class. CLI does not issue Incomplete grades. Students who do not complete coursework by the end of CLI will be graded normally, and receive a zero for any uncompleted assignments.

Class Time versus Homework:
This intensive course relies heavily on independent student work and you should plan to spend four hours a day on homework and review outside of class.

Class time concentrates on activities that you cannot perform effectively without the immediate feedback of an instructor, for example: conversation, structured oral drills, active listening comprehension, etc. Activities for which no instructor is necessary will typically be assigned as homework, for example: reading, writing, and composition; grammar, etc.

In particular, you will be expected to read ahead and to work with material that has not yet been covered in class. It is your responsibility to learn assigned material before class, and then come to class prepared to apply what you have learned. Instructors will not necessarily go over every homework topic in class. Instead, they will concentrate on topics that are particularly difficult or particularly important. Nonetheless, you are responsible for mastering every topic assigned, including topics not emphasized in class.
This course moves at 5 times the speed of a yearlong language course and preparation is critical. Students who come to class unprepared will find it difficult to succeed. Students should also aim to participate in extracurricular activities such as the Russian club and film screenings as much as possible to help reinforce the formal classroom instruction.

Participation:
Since the course relies so heavily on listening and speaking practice, attendance and participation are mandatory and count toward your final grade.

Class participation will reflect your daily preparation and active participation in class discussions. A student who is chronically late to class, leaves early, or is not prepared to participate, will not receive full attendance and participation credit.

Students who miss more than two classes over the course of the 8-week session without prior consent of the instructor or CLI administration will receive a zero for class participation and will be asked to withdraw from the course.

Homework Grading:
Homework is your opportunity to nail down the material you’ve learned in class as well to practice new structures. It is expected that you will make mistakes; you will not be marked down for doing so. As long as you complete your homework and turn it in on time, you will receive full credit.

Academic Dishonesty:
Academic honesty is expected of all students in all examinations, papers, laboratory work, academic transactions and records. The possible sanctions include, but are not limited to, appropriate grade penalties, course failure (indicated on the transcript as a grade of E), course failure due to academic dishonesty (indicated on the transcript as a grade of XE), loss of registration privileges, disqualification and dismissal. For more information, see http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity.

Students with Disabilities:

Establishing Eligibility for Disability Accommodation. Students who need disability accommodation must register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) before requesting accommodation. DRC is located on the first floor of the Matthews Center Building. DRC staff can also be reached at: 480-965-1234 (V), 480-965-9000 (TTY). For additional information, visit:  www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/drc. Their hours are 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday.

Accommodation. Students with disabilities requiring accommodation who have registered with DRC will receive a form to present to their instructor. Disability information is confidential. Accommodation must be requested in advance. Retroactive requests for accommodation may not be granted.

Note: Instructors are prohibited from making accommodation for disability without approval from the disabilities resource center. Be sure to register with DRC before requested accommodation.
Sexual Harrasment: Title IX

Title IX is a federal law that provides that no person be excluded on the basis of sex from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Both Title IX and university policy make clear that sexual violence and harassment based on sex is prohibited. An individual who believes they have been subjected to sexual violence or harassed on the basis of sex can seek support, including counseling and academic support, from the university. If you or someone you know has been harassed on the basis of sex or sexually assaulted, you can find information and resources at https://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs.

As a mandated reporter, I am obligated to report any information I become aware of regarding alleged acts of sexual discrimination, including sexual violence and dating violence. ASU Counseling Services, https://eoss.asu.edu/counseling, is available if you wish to discuss any concerns confidentially and privately.
